

Intentional 2017

The Art & Science of creating your future

February 2017 Continuity

Power of Love

February is the second month of the year and Numerology shows you the energy of two is all about relationships. Relationships are great teachers for you. When you enter into a relationship in your personal or professional life, you immediately begin to realize your life has changed. In relationships, you learn many things about yourself through communication, commitments, agreements, trust, and intimacy.

It is no coincidence that Valentine's Day (2/14/2017) is in February. It is also no coincidence that it falls in the fourteenth, the powerful energy of unbridled passion.

February's vibrational energy says, "It's time to use your feeling words!" Once a year in February, the wisdom of "the great mystery" (GOD) prompts you to learn and express the language of Love. Love makes everything better. Love is the energy that can transform your challenges into the gift of joy; it is the glue that holds us all together.

Every culture uses their unique words for love to express this powerful energy that radiates from our heart. Did you know science has actually measured this Love energy and labeled it as intuitive intelligence? I love it when science and spirit come into alignment. It gives the skeptics permission to explore the unseen world we all live in.

Last month you stepped into a new nine- year century cycle of time. The vibration of this new century cycle vibrates to energy of 9. The vibration of 9 encourages you to learn more about how you can thrive. This energy is encouraging you to pursue win-win outcomes for your self and those you come into relationship with in your personal and professional life. What you discover in February about the power of love will give you insights, tools and practices to create more peace, abundance and joy as you travel through 2017.

This month Numerology gives you a hidden clue to achieving your successes as you experience the power of love. The vibration of the word love is the same vibration as the word money. Both of these words radiate the same energy! This being said . . . this month, as you are experiencing the vibration of relationships, I encourage you to explore your deeper values and beliefs about how you relate with love and money. *Hint, the more you have of one magnetizes the other.

This year February's 2-energy is paired with the 1-energy of 2017. This merging of energies generates the vibration of 3 (2+1=3). This added 3-vibration encourages you to become more engaged with some creative outlets. It wants you to play, travel, write, sing, dance, or speak. This month you have permission to let your inner child play. Go on an adventure to explore all the possibilities of where the power of love can take you. You will learn more about who you really are as you do what you do.

Best days in February to explore the power of love are:
February 2, 3, 6, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22, 24.
